- 1 A. Oh. Okay.
- 2 Q. Do you see the section -- the subsection
- 3 called "Administrative leave"?
- 4 A. Yes. The definition.
- 5 Q. Okay. Can you read the administrative leave
- 6 policy for me, please?
 - MS. O'DRISCOLL: Objection, form.
- 8 A. Well, it's not the policy. It's just the
- 9 definition.
- 10 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) Okay. Can you -- can you
- 11 read the definition of -- of -- for administrative
- 12 leave?

- 13 A. Yes. "Administrative leave is used when a
- 14 supervisor/manager perceives that the employee may
- 15 cause a potential threat to themselves or others or
- 16 when the employee is behaving in a disruptive and/or
- 17 unruly manner that management is not able to handle.
- 18 The employee should be sent home for the day with pay,
- 19 pending investigation of the situation by the
- 20 supervisor/manager. HR must be informed when an
- 21 employee has been put on administrative leave to assist
- 22 with the investigation."
- 23 Q. Okay. So you're HR, right?
- 24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Did you assist with an investigation?

- 1 administrative leave in light of this definition.
 - 2 A. The part that says the employee is behaving in
 - 3 a disruptive or unruly manner that management is not
 - 4 able to handle.
 - 5 Q. Okay. How was she acting in a disruptive or
 - 6 unruly manner that management was unable to handle?
 - A. At that moment, she wasn't. The reports that
 - 8 they were investigating were things that they felt they
 - 9 were not able to handle and investigate with her in the
 - 10 center.
 - 11 Q. But she had been on FMLA leave prior to being
 - 12 placed on administrative leave, correct?
 - 13 A. Yes. I'm not talking about when she was on
 - 14 the administrative leave. The issues that were
 - 15 uncovered were not issues that occurred when she was on
 - 16 the administrative leave. They were things that
 - 17 occurred prior to that.
 - Q. Okay. But she was allowed back into the
 - 19 facility, correct?

- That morning, yes.
- 21 Q. That morning, was she acting in a disruptive
- 22 or unruly manner?
- 23 A. That morning, she was not.
- 24 Q. All right. Let's look at "Termination of
- 25 employment."

Page 15

- 1 A. Uh-huh.
 - Q. Can you read that definition for me?
 - 3 A. Yes. "Termination of employment is a
- 4 consequence for not meeting the expectations of a" --
- 5 "of in" -- sorry, that's a typo -- "the formal
- 6 corrective action process. Termination occurs when the
- 7 employee has failed to correct a problem or situation
- 8 despite receipt of a written warning and/or a final
- 9 written warning. In addition to foregoing -- to the
- 10 foregoing, termination may occur immediately without
- 11 prior corrective action, depending on the nature,
- 12 frequency, and severity of the violation. Termination
- 13 decisions must be reviewed with human resources before
- 14 they take effect."
- 15 Q. Did you review the decision to terminate
- 16 Ms. Ellis before it took effect?
- 17 A. Yes.

18

- Q. And you approved it, correct?
- 19 A. Yes. Well, I didn't approve it. I'm not
- 20 someone that approved it. It's not an approval. It's
- 21 just a review process.
- 22 Q. You allowed it to take effect?
- 23 A. I didn't get in the way of it.
- 24 Q. Okay. Fair enough.
 - Do you know if Ms. Ellis was allowed to

- A. No, I did not.
- Q. Okay. And did -- were you aware -- or did you
- 3 believe that Ms. Ellis was a potential threat to
- 4 herself or others?
- 5 A. No, I did not.
- 6 Q. Okay. And you realize that she had just come
- 7 back from brain surgery, right?
- 8 MS. O'DRISCOLL: Objection, form.
- 9 A. I realized she just came back from a procedure
- 10 from FMLA.
- 11 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) Okay. Is there anything in
- 12 this administrative leave policy that states an
- 13 employee should be placed on administrative leave
- 14 because a manager perceives she's having work issues?
- 15 MS. O'DRISCOLL: Objection, form;
- 16 mischaracterizes the document.
- 17 A. I'm not sure what you mean by "work issues."
- 18 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) Issues with her employment.
- 19 Does -- is that stated anywhere in this
- 20 definition of "Administrative leave"?
- A. Not specifically the way you worded it.
- 22 Q. Well, anywhere in here -- how would you word
- 23 it?
- 24 A. How would I word what?
- 25 Q. To justify Ms. Ellis being placed on

- 6 you this: What is the formal corrective action process

- A. It's on here. Let's see. I mean, do you want

- Q. Just tell me about it. Tell me what the 10
- 11 corrective action process is.
- A. Are you asking me to summarize it? 12
- 13 Q. I want you to tell me -- to testify from your
- experience as the top person in HR for the company what
- 15 the corrective action -- formal corrective action
- process is. 16
- A. Is that we would normally give a written 17
- 18 warning and then possibly a second written warning or a
- final written warning before termination, but that at
- 20 any point if the manager feels the violations are
- 21 severe or frequent, that it can be accelerated to
- 22 immediate termination.

- 3 A. No.
- Q. Okay. And she was presented with issues the 4

- 6 A. Yes.
- Q. Was she given the opportunity to correct any 7
- problems or situations upon her coming back to work
- from FMLA leave?
- 10 A. She was given the opportunity to respond and
 - explain the concerns that were uncovered while she was

- Q. -- in the corrective action policy. Let's go 5
- back to "Termination of employment."
- A. Okay. 7
- 8 Q. You read that to me.
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. In here it says, "Termination occurs when the - employee has failed to correct a problem or problems or 11
- 12 situations despite receipt of a written warning" --
- "and/or final written warning." 13
- 14 Was Ms. Ellis given a written and/or
- 15 final written warning?
 - MS. O'DRISCOLL: Objection, form.
- A. She was given a written warning. 17
- 18 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) I'm asking you, was she?
- A. Yes. 19

16

- 20 Q. When?
- 21 A. In August, I believe, of 2012.
- 22 Q. Was that before or after her FMLA leave?
- 23 A. Before.
- 24 Q. Okay. All right.
 - You don't expect that she would have had

- given a written warning?
 - A. Yes.
- 3 Q. But Ms. Ellis was not given that opportunity,
- 4 correct?
- 5 A. Not when she was presented with the issues on
- 6 the day that she returned. She was given an
- 7 opportunity to explain them.
- Q. Well, let's talk about the issues that were 8
- 9 raised. From your understanding, why was Ms. Ellis
- 10 terminated?
- 11 A. There were several reasons, but the primary
- one was a lack of trust on her part by her supervisors
- 13 based on several issues that could not be answered.
- Q. Let's talk about them. I want to know what 14
- 15 your understanding is of why she was terminated. So
- 16 let's go through each one.
 - A. Okay.
- 18 Q. So I'll let you start wherever you'd like.
- Let's start with -- so what was the first reason that
- 20 you can think of that she was terminated?
- 21 A. I believe we gave you a document that lists
- 22 the issues that were presented to her.
- 23 Q. And I can appreciate that, but I'm asking you
- to tell me from your understanding, as you sit here
- right now, why she was terminated. 25

- A. There were several policy violations. There
- 2 were complaints that were looked into from the
- 3 employees. Numerous complaints. There were a lot of
- 4 different policy violations.
- 5 Q. What else?
- 6 A. Off the top of my head, I can't recall all the
- 7 specifics without looking at the document. I didn't
- 8 make the termination decision.
- 9 Q. What policy violations?
- 10 A. Giving her password out, hiring an employee --
- 11 or hiring someone that she had a personal relationship
- 12 with that wasn't disclosed or given approval for, were
- 13 two of them.
- 14 Q. Did you look into the personal relationship
- 15 issue?
- 16 A. I didn't, no. Her supervisors did.
- 17 Q. Did you look into the password issue?
- 18 A. No, I did not.
- Q. Before the termination decision was made, were
- 20 you told about the personal relationship issue being a
- 21 factor in her termination?
- 22 A. Was I told about it?
- 23 Q. Yes.
- 24 A. Yes.
- 25 Q. Okay. So you were aware that one of the

- 3 Q. Significant other. How so?
- 4 A. She hired and then subsequently promoted a man
- 5 who was the father of her child without disclosing that
- 6 or getting approval from anyone in a direct reporting
- 7 relationship.
- 8 Q. We're talking about Troi, right?
- 9 A. Yes.
- 10 Q. Okay. Do you know if Troi and Ms. Ellis were
- 11 related by blood?
- 12 A. I don't have that information, no.
- 13 Q. Do you have any reason to believe that they
- 14 are not related by blood?
- 15 A. Do I have any reason to what?
 - Q. Do you have any reason to dispute that they

- 7 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) I'm going to hand you what
- 8 we're marking as Exhibit 2 to your deposition.
- 9 Do you recognize this document?
- 10 A. Yes.
- 11 Q. What is this?
- 12 A. It looks a little different because there's
- 13 things at the top that I don't recognize, but the

- 15 Q. Okay. And can you read the definition of
- 16 "Relative" in Subsection 2 under "Definitions" where it
- 17 says "Relative"?
- 18 A. Yes. "Relative is defined as any of the

Was Troi still working at the company 8 Q. Do you not remember? when Ms. Ellis was terminated? 9 A. Not off the top of my head. Is there anyone else that you received that 18 at the time that Ms. Ellis was terminated, correct? 18 feedback from pertaining to the issue that you 19 A. Yes. 19 described? 20 Q. Do you have any reason to dispute that? A. Uh-huh. 23 A. No. 23 Q. What was your understanding of the password 24 Q. So why was it that a year later someone cares 24 issue? that Ms. Ellis had a child with him many years before? 25 A. My understanding of it was from what was Page 35 Page 37 A. It was complaints from the staff that there 1 1 reported to me. 2 were perceptions of favoritism. 2 Q. Did you investigate it? 3 Q. But he hadn't been there for a year before she 3 A. No. Q. Did you ask anybody about it? 4 was terminated? 4 5 A. We didn't hear about any of this from the 5 A. Yes. 6 staff until after there was no management in the center 6 Q. Who did you ask about it? 7 and we had to send people to cover. 7 A. Nancy Ambrose. Q. How could she be playing favorites to someone 8 Q. And what did she tell you? 8 9 who wasn't there? How does that work? 9 A. She told me that she looked into the password. 10 A. I'm just telling you the perceptions we heard That she did not sign off the exam; Chris Paul did not 10 11 from the staff. sign off the exam. She worked with IT to determine how 12 Q. Did you investigate it?

13 A. I did.

Q. And what did you find? 14

15 A. I -- I spoke to staff, as did several of the managers that were coming to the center, and people

17 told us that they were afraid to speak up previously,

18 but now that there was no one in the center, they were sharing their concerns, and those concerns was that 20 Ms. Ellis was hiring relatives and there was a

21 perception of unfairness. And when we asked who,

22 that's when we first learned about her hiring Troi and

23 then later promoting Troi.

24 Q. And had you learned that Troi had not been

25 there for a year at the time that you-all terminated

the exam was signed off, and it was signed off using 12

Artis' password and that she spoke to several staff and found out that Sharon Dolberg was asked by Artis to use

15 her password -- to use Artis' password; Artis gave

Sharon her password to sign off the exam. 16

17 Q. And that was while Ms. Ellis was on leave,

18 right?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. You know she had had a surgical procedure on 21 her brain, right?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. So why was anybody reaching out to Ms. Ellis

24 while she was on leave?

25 MS. O'DRISCOLL: Objection, form.

September 07, 2016 Pages 38 to 41

Page 41

Page 38 A. I wasn't told that. I was told that Artis

2 reached out to Sharon and asked her to sign it off with

3 her password.

4 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) You realize that Ms. Ellis

5 was at the hospital when that happened, right?

7 Q. Okay. What if Ms. Ellis had not provided her

8 password? Could that exam have been signed off on?

A. Yes.

10 Q. How?

11 A. Nancy Ambrose or Chris could have signed off

12 on the exam.

13 Q. Did Nancy Ambrose sign off on it?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Did Chris sign off on it?

16 A. No.

17 Q. Should they have signed off on it since

18 Ms. Ellis was out on leave?

19 A. Nancy Ambrose went in to sign off on it, and 20 that's when she discovered that it had already been

21 signed off.

22 Q. How do you know that?

23 A. Nancy told me.

24 Q. Do you know of any other instances where 25 someone else had given someone else a password? A. No.

2 Q. What about Sharon Dolberg? Was she

3 terminated?

4 A. No.

5 Q. Was she reprimanded?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Would she have also been in violation of the policy for using Ms. Ellis' password?

A. No. She was following her manager's

10 directions.

11 Q. So while Ms. Ellis was out on FMLA leave, who 12 was handling her function?

13 A. There were several people that were handling

it because the assistant manager had resigned, so there 14

15 was no management in the center.

Q. Okay. Who was that?

17 A. It was -- it was rotating, and we didn't put 18 anyone there permanently for the entire time. Chris

19 Paul was there for a good portion of it, Nancy was

20 there for a good portion of it, and the same managers that I just listed to you were also there. Usually,

22 there was two people, whether it was a center manager

23 or director or assistant director at any given time in 24 the center.

25 Q. So Chris Paul?

Page 39

Q. Nancy Ambrose?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Who else?

A. Yes.

5 A. Valerie McCluskey, Sandie Pullen, Peter

O'Colmain, Ron Linka. I believe that's everyone, but 7 I'm not 100 percent sure. There might have been another manager that helped cover.

Q. And any of those managers, would they have 9

10 been able to administer some component of an exam?

A. Yes, they all administer it in their own

12 centers.

13 Q. Okay. Do you know why, if any of those individuals were able to administer exams, why

Ms. Ellis had to be involved while she was in the 15

16 hospital?

17 A. I would have no reason to know why she would feel that she needs to be involved. We did not expect that of her.

19

Q. You say "we." Who is "we"?

21 A. Anyone in the organization.

22 Q. Anyone in the organization? 23

A. Anyone that I'm aware of in the organization.

We did not expect that of her. We don't expect that of people on leave.

A. No. Q. Could Nancy Ambrose administer an exam?

3 A. I don't know. You would have to explain what

4 you mean by "administer."

5 Q. You tell me. What does it mean to administer

6 an exam?

A. There's a lot of steps in the process that 8 goes through administering an exam.

9 Q. Could Nancy Ambrose do any of those steps?

10 A. Yes, she could do some of them. She could

11 probably do all of them.

12 Q. Were you aware that Brent Biggs gave Rich Conn

13 his password?

14 A. No, I was not.

15 Q. Were you aware that Brent also gave his

16 password to Gail Forman?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Is Brent Biggs still with the company?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Did he resign? Was he terminated?

21 A. He resigned.

22 Q. He was not terminated, correct?

23 A. Correct.

24 Q. He was not terminated for any password

- A. Yes.
- 8 Q. Okay. And here it states -- do you have any

- 11 A. No, I don't have any reason to dispute that.

- 7 Q. And even after the coaching, he still, in your

- 12 Q. (BY MR. KENNARD) Okay. Even after he

 - A. He was terminated after he received coaching.
- 15 Q. Okay. That's my question. Thank you.

- 18 A. No.
- 19 Q. Was a coach hired for Ms. Ellis?

- 6 Q. Were you aware that he and Artis were having

- 8 A. Yes.
- 9 Q. So the interpersonal issues that eventually

- 15 A. The interpersonal skills were not the reason
- 16 for his final termination.
- 17 Q. Was that one of the reasons for his final

- 19 A. It was listed in an e-mail to the president,
- 20 but the executive director had two bigger issues that
- 21 resulted in the termination.
- 22 Q. Didn't they get him a coach in December of

- 25 Q. What was the purpose of that coach?

- 1 A. "And, by the way, there has never been any
- 2 talk of replacing the Houston manager to my knowledge,
- 3 and you know our process requires that."
- 4 Q. And when you're talking about the Houston
- 5 manager, you're talking about Ms. Ellis, right?
 - A. Yes.
- 7 Q. There had been no talk, at least as of June
- 8 27, 2012, of replacing the Houston manager, i.e.
- 9 Ms. Ellis, right?
- 10 A. Correct.
 - Q. Okay. And then you go on to say, "And you
- 12 know our process requires that." What process are you
- 13 talking about?
- 14 A. The process of termination requires it being
- 15 reviewed with HR.
- 16 Q. What else? Is there any other part of the
- 17 process?
 - A. It would have to be the approval of the next
- 19 level person, which it would have been Ann Jobe.
 - Q. What else is involved in that process?
- 21 A. That's all.
- 22 Q. Okay.
 - MR. KENNARD: I have no further
- 24 questions. Pass the witness.
 - MS. O'DRISCOLL: Let me take a quick

16	13	The issues uncovered that were believed to be disruptive to the center were not tihngs that occurred while she was on Administrative Leave or FMLA leave, they were issues that were reported to management during her FMLA leave and that had actually occurred prior to her taking FMLA leave. The employees did not feel safe in reporting them while she was in the center, but they did report them to the various members of management that were covering the center while Ellis was on the FMLA leave. These incidents led to the decision about Administrative Leave occurred by the defendent prior to her taking FMLA leave.	clarification

The policy doesn't say it was the one described above. It says it was similar to the ones described above. These opinions were based on the initial explanations provided by the defended when asked about her relationship with Troi as well as her confession the following day where she admitted to lying about her relationship with Troi.	correction

The Executive Director, Kim LeBlanc had two bigger issues, including falsification of his employment application -that was just discovered -and interfering with the Executive Director's communication with Center Managers.	clarification
